Moelyci is on the beautiful Lon Las Ogwen cycle route (Route No 82). It takes approximately 30 - 45 minutes to cycle from Bangor to Moelyci. You can see the route if you follow this link to the Sustrans website. The access point marked 'Moelyci' will bring you on to the Moelyci heritage path at the bottom of the farm near the community allotments, if you turn right here you will come to the Market Garden poly tunnels and the beginning of the track up to the farmhouse. Happy pedalling!

Directions from the A55 from the Chester direction

Turn off the A55 at Exit 11 which is signposted Betws y Coed and Bangor. At the top of the slip road, turn left and then move over to the right hand lane to turn right at the roundabout. You are now on the A4366 and you will see a Travelodge on your right hand side. Follow the A4366 for about three quarters of a mile until you see a sign for Tregarth (B4409). Turn left just after you have gone under a green and red bridge and follow the road for about 500 yards. Just as you are approaching a left hand bend you will see the large slate sign for Moelyci on your right hand side. Turn right and go through the gates. Parking is available near the gates or there is limited parking a little further up the drive. As you go up the drive you will see polytunnels on your left. Go past the polytunnels and Moelyci farmhouse is on the left hand side.
